

St. Alban's Tavern, St. Alban's-Street,
September 27, 1759.

THE COMMITTEE appointed by the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, of the County of Middlesex, and City and Liberty of Westminster, at their general Meeting, held at St. Alban's Tavern the 19th Day of this Instant September, do hereby give Notice, that they will meet on Saturday next, the 29th Instant, and the following Days, from Eleven o'Clock in the Morning until One in the Afternoon, (Sundays excepted) at the Vestry-Room of the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, to enlist such able-bodied Landmen as shall then present themselves and be enlisted, on or before the 31st of October next, to serve in HIS MAJESTY's Land Forces, upon the Terms of not being sent out of Great Britain, and to be intitled to their Discharge in three Years, or at the End of the War, if they chuse it : And the said COMMITTEE do hereby promise a Bounty of FIVE GUINEAS to every such able-bodied Man, immediately upon his enlisting as aforesaid.